For the Air Force, $4,164,500,000, of which $10,000,000 may be obligated and expended only for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS) program, but such $10,000,000 may not be obligated or expended until at least one member country of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (other than the United States) enters into a contract to purchase the AWACS aircraft.

For the Defense Agencies, $933,400,000, of which $27,600,000 is authorized for the activities of the Director of Test and Evaluation, Defense.

EXTREMELY LOW FREQUENCY (ELF) COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

Presidential certification to Congress.

SEC. 202. None of the funds authorized to be appropriated by this Act for the development of the Extremely Low Frequency (ELF) communication system may be obligated or expended for the development of such system unless the President certifies to the Congress in writing that the use of funds for such purpose is in the national interest, that a site has been selected for the deployment of such system, and that the President has approved such site for the deployment of such system, and in no event may any of the funds authorized to be appropriated by this Act be used for full scale development or construction of another test-bed facility for an Extremely Low Frequency (ELF) communication system.

REPORT RELATING TO DEVELOPMENT OF SURVIVABLE LAND-BASED INTERCONTINENTAL BALLISTIC MISSILE SYSTEM

committees.

SEC. 203. The Secretary of Defense shall, not later than October 31, 1978, report to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives the decision of the executive branch regarding full scale development of a survivable land-based intercontinental ballistic missile system. In the event that no final decision regarding such matter has been reached by the executive branch by such date, the Secretary of Defense shall—

(1) notify such committees on or before such date that no final decision has been reached and the reasons why such decision has not been made;

(2) inform such committees of the technical, political, or other considerations necessitating a delay in making such decision;

(3) indicate the date the Secretary believes a final decision will have been made with respect to such matter; and

(4) submit a report to such committees once every 30 days on the status of the decision on such matter (including in each such report information relating to the matters contained in clauses (2) and (3) of this section) until a final decision by the executive branch has been made and such committees have been informed of such decision.

REPEAL OF FISCAL YEAR 1978 AWACS RESTRICTION

SEC. 204. Section 201 of the Department of Defense Appropriation Authorization Act, 1978 (Public Law 95-79, 91 Stat. 323), is amended by striking out “, but such $15,700,000 may not be obligated or expended until at least one member country of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (other than the United States) enters into a contract to purchase the AWACS aircraft”.

TITLE III—ACTIVE FORCES

SEC. 301. For fiscal year 1979, each component of the Armed Forces is authorized an end strength for active duty personnel as follows:

- (1) The Army, 775,800.
- (2) The Navy, 523,550.
- (3) The Marine Corps, 190,000.
- (4) The Air Force, 566,400.

TITLE IV—RESERVE FORCES

SEC. 401. (a) For fiscal year 1979, the Selected Reserve of each Reserve Component of the Armed Forces shall be programmed to attain an average strength of not less than the following:

- (1) The Army National Guard of the United States, 362,200.
- (2) The Army Reserve, 195,750.
- (3) The Naval Reserve, 87,000.
- (4) The Marine Corps Reserve, 33,000.
- (5) The Air National Guard of the United States, 92,150.
- (6) The Air Force Reserve, 53,075.
- (7) The Coast Guard Reserve, 11,700.

(b) The average strength prescribed by subsection (a) of this section for the Selected Reserve of any Reserve component shall be proportionately reduced by (1) the total authorized strength of units organized to serve as units of the Selected Reserve of such component which are on active duty (other than for training) at any time during the fiscal year, and (2) the total number of individual members not in units organized to serve as units of the Selected Reserve of such component who are on active duty (other than for training or for unsatisfactory participation in training) without their consent at any time during the fiscal year. Whenever such units or such individual members are released from active duty during any fiscal year, the average strength prescribed for such fiscal year for the Selected Reserve of such Reserve component shall be proportionately increased by the total authorized strength of such units and by the total number of such individual members. Reduction.

EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FOR ENLISTED RESERVES

SEC. 402. (a) Section 2132(b)(1) of title 10, United States Code, relating to eligibility for educational assistance, is amended—

- (1) by striking out “automatically extended by two years” and inserting in lieu thereof “not less than six years”; and
- (2) by striking out “eighth anniversary” and inserting in lieu thereof “last day of the term”.

(b) Section 2135 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out “1978” and inserting in lieu thereof “1980”.

REENLISTMENT BONUS FOR MEMBERS OF SELECTED RESERVE

SEC. 403. (a) Subsection (a) of section 308b of title 37, United States Code, relating to reenlistment bonuses for members of the Selected Reserve, is amended to read as follows:

“(a) An enlisted member of a reserve component who—

“(1) has completed less than ten years of total military services; and

“(2) reenlists or voluntarily extends his enlistment for a period of three years or for a period of six years in a designated military skill, or in a designated unit, as determined by the Secretary concerned, in the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve of an armed force; may be paid a bonus as provided in subsection (b).”

(b) Subsection (b) of such section is amended by inserting “an amount not to exceed” before “$450”, before “$900”, and before “$150”.

(c) Subsection (g) of such section is amended by striking out “1973” and inserting in lieu thereof “1980”.

BONUS FOR ENLISTMENT IN THE SELECTED RESERVE

SEC. 404. (a) Chapter 5 of title 37, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 308b the following new section:

37 USC 308c.

“§ 308c. Special pay: bonus for enlistment in the Selected Reserve

“(a) Any person who, after September 30, 1978, enlists in the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve of an armed force for a term of enlistment of not less than six years, is a graduate of a secondary school, and has never previously served in an armed force may be paid a bonus as provided in subsection (b).

“(b) The amount and method of payment of a bonus to be paid under subsection (a) shall be determined in accordance with regulations prescribed under subsection (c), except that the amount of such bonus may not exceed $2,000 and—

“(1) one-half of the bonus shall be paid upon completion of the initial active duty for training of such person; and

“(2) the remainder of the bonus may be paid in periodic installments or in a lump sum, as determined by the Secretary concerned.

Administration.

“(c) This section shall be administered under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Defense for the armed forces under his jurisdiction and by the Secretary of Transportation for the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy.

Refund.

“(d) A member who fails to participate satisfactorily in training with his unit during a term of enlistment for which a bonus has been paid to him under this section shall refund an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of the bonus which has been paid to him as the unexpired part of such term of enlistment bears to the total length of such term of enlistment.

Reports to Congress.

“(e) The Secretary of defense shall submit a report to the Congress every three months stating the number of members of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve who at the time of such report are serving a term of enlistment for which a bonus has been paid under this section and listing each unit of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve to which any such member is assigned at the time of such report. The first such report shall be made not later than December 31, 1978.

“(f) No bonus may be paid under this section to any enlisted member who, after September 30, 1980, enlists in the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve of an armed force.”.

(b) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 308b the following new item:

“308c. Special pay: bonus for enlistment in the Selected Reserve.”.

RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER FROM READY RESERVE TO STANDBY RESERVE

SEC. 405. (a) (1) Section 269 of title 10, United States Code, relating to transfers from the Ready Reserve, is amended—

(A) by striking out “eligible to transfer” in subsection (a) and inserting in lieu thereof “transferred”;

(B) by striking out the colon at the end of the third sentence in subsection (d) and inserting in lieu thereof a period;

(C) by striking out subsection (e) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(e) Subject to subsection (g) and under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Defense, and by the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy, a member in the Ready Reserve may be transferred to the Standby Reserve.”; and

(D) by striking out subsection (f) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

“(f) A Reserve who is qualified and so requests may be transferred to the Retired Reserve under regulations prescribed by the Secretary concerned and, in the case of the Secretary of a military department, approved by the Secretary of Defense.”.

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a member of the Ready Reserve of an Armed Force who served on active duty (other than for training) before the date of the enactment of this Act.

10 USC 269 note.

(b) Section 271 of such title, relating to continuous screening of the Ready Reserve, is amended—

10 USC 271.

(1) by inserting “(a)” before “Under regulations”;

(2) by striking out “significance” in clause (1) and inserting in lieu thereof “significant”; and

(3) by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

Regulations.

“(b) Under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of Defense, and by the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy, any member of the Ready Reserve who is designated as a member not to be retained in the Ready Reserve as a result of screening under subsection (a) shall, as appropriate, be transferred to the Standby Reserve, discharged, or, if such member is eligible and applies therefor, transferred to the Retired Reserve.”.

(c) (1) Section 511(b) of such title, relating to terms of enlistments in Reserve components, is amended—

Enlistment terms.
10 USC 511.

(A) in the first sentence—

(i) by striking out “the Secretary concerned” and inserting in lieu thereof “the Secretary of Defense, and by the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy”; and

(ii) by striking out “sections 451-473 of title 50, appendix” and inserting in lieu thereof “the Military Selective Service Act (50 U.S.C. App. 451-473)”;

(B) in the second sentence—

- (i) by inserting “not less than” in clause (1) before “two years” and by adding “and” at the end of such clause;
- (ii) by striking out clause (2); and
- (iii) by redesignating clause (3) as clause (2) and striking out “Standby Reserve” in such clause and inserting in lieu thereof “Ready Reserve”.

10 USC 511 note.

(2) The amendments made by paragraph (1) shall not apply with respect to a person who enlisted as a Reserve for service in the Armed Forces under section 511(b) of title 10, United States Code, before the date of the enactment of this Act.

(d) (1) Chapter 37 of such title, relating to general service requirements, is amended by adding after section 651 the following new section:

10 USC 652.

“§ 652. Ready Reserves: requirement of notification of change of status

“Under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of Defense, and by the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the Coast Guard when it is not operating as a service in the Navy, each member of the Ready Reserve who is not a member of the Selected Reserve shall notify the Secretary concerned of any change in such member’s address, marital status, number of dependents, or civilian employment and of any change in such member’s physical condition which would prevent him from meeting the physical or mental standards prescribed for his armed force.”.

(2) The table of sections at the beginning of such chapter is amended by adding after the item relating to section 651 the following new item: “652. Ready Reserves: requirement of notification of change of status.”.

SEC. 406. (a) Section 264 of title 10, United States Code, is amended by striking out subsection (c).

Repeal.

10 USC 279.

(b) (1) Section 279 of such title is repealed.

(2) The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 11 of such title is amended by striking out the item relating to section 279.

TITLE V—CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

End strength.

SEC. 501. (a) For fiscal year 1979, the Department of Defense is authorized an end strength for civilian personnel of 1,005,500.

(b) The end strength for civilian personnel prescribed in subsection (a) of this section shall be apportioned among the Department of the Army, the Department of the Navy (including the Marine Corps), the Department of the Air Force, and the agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments) in such numbers as the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe. The Secretary of Defense shall report to the Congress within sixty days after the date of the enactment of this Act on the manner in which the initial allocation of civilian personnel is made among the military departments and the agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments) and shall include the rationale for each allocation.

Report to Congress.

(c) In computing the authorized end strength for civilian personnel there shall be included all direct-hire and indirect-hire civilian personnel employed to perform military functions administered by the Department of Defense (other than those performed by the National Security Agency), whether employed on a full-time, part-time, or intermittent basis, but excluding special employment categories for students and disadvantaged youth such as the stay-in-school campaign, the temporary summer aid program and the Federal junior fellowship program and personnel participating in the worker-trainee opportunity program. Whenever a function, power, or duty, or activity is transferred or assigned to a department or agency of the Department of Defense from a department or agency outside of the Department of Defense, or from another department or agency within the Department of Defense, the civilian personnel end strength authorized for such departments or agencies of the Department of Defense affected shall be adjusted to reflect any increases or decreases in civilian personnel required as a result of such transfer or assignment.

(d) When the Secretary of Defense determines that such action is necessary in the national interest, he may authorize the employment of civilian personnel in excess of the number authorized in subsection (a) of this section, but such additional number may not exceed 1¼ percent of the total number of civilian personnel authorized for the Department of Defense by subsection (a) of this section. The Secretary of Defense shall promptly notify the Congress of any authorization to increase civilian personnel strength under the authority of this subsection.

Personnel increase,
limitation.

Notification to Congress.

TITLE VI—MILITARY TRAINING STUDENT LOADS

SEC. 601. (a) For fiscal year 1979, each component of the Armed Forces is authorized an average military training student load as follows:

- (1) The Army, 50,738.
- (2) The Navy, 57,996.
- (3) The Marine Corps, 21,324.
- (4) The Air Force, 44,410.
- (5) The Army National Guard of the United States, 11,793.
- (6) The Army Reserve, 5,959.
- (7) The Naval Reserve, 991.
- (8) The Marine Corps Reserve, 3,074.
- (9) The Air National Guard of the United States, 2,471.
- (10) The Air Force Reserve, 1,184.

(b) In addition to the number authorized for the Army in subsection (a), the Army is authorized a military training student load for fiscal year 1979 of not less than 17,205 to be utilized solely for One Station Unit Training.

(c) The average military training student loads for the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Air Force and the Reserve components authorized in subsection (a) of this section for fiscal year 1979 shall be adjusted consistent with the manpower strengths authorized in titles III, IV, and V of this Act. Such adjustment shall be apportioned among the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, and the Air Force and the Reserve components in such manner as the Secretary of Defense shall prescribe.

Apportionment

REDUCTION OR REALIGNMENT OF THE TRAINING BASE

SEC. 602. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no action may be taken to effect or implement any substantial reduction of the training base (as defined in subsection (c)) or any substantial force structure realignment of the training base planned as a part of the fiscal year 1979 Defense manpower program unless and until the provisions of subsection (b) are complied with.

10 USC 2662
note.

(b) No action described in subsection (a) with respect to a substantial reduction or realignment of the training base may be taken unless and until—

Notification to congressional committees.

(1) the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of the military department concerned notifies the Committee on Armed Services and Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives in writing of the specific reduction or realignment proposed;

Certification.

(2) the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of the military department concerned certifies that such reduction or realignment is in the best interest of the national security and provides for the most cost effective and efficient management of the training base, both in time of peace and in ability to meet mobilization requirements; and

(3) a period of thirty legislative days expires following the date on which the notification and certification referred to in clauses (1) and (2) have been submitted to such committees, during which period no irrevocable action may be taken to effect or implement such reduction or realignment.

For the purpose of clause (3), a legislative day is a day in which either House of Congress is in session.

“Training base.”

(c) For the purposes of this section, the term “training base” means the composite of installations, posts, camps, stations, and bases that have as a primary or secondary mission the conduct of formal entry level, advanced individual, or specialty training.

TITLE VII—CIVIL DEFENSE

AUTHORIZATION FOR DEFENSE CIVIL PREPAREDNESS AGENCY

SEC. 701. There is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the programs of the Defense Civil Preparedness Agency for fiscal year 1979 for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950 the sum of $96,500,000.

SEC. 702. (a) From the funds authorized to be appropriated pursuant to section 701 of this Act, the sum of $200,000 shall be used for a study of the special defense needs of areas of the United States which contain significant elements of the United States strategic nuclear retaliatory forces or significant defense-related research laboratories or facilities.

(b) The study provided for in subsection (a) shall include the following:

(1) An identification of areas of the United States which, because they contain significant elements of the United States strategic nuclear retaliatory forces or significant defense-related research laboratories or facilities, are prime targets in case of a nuclear attack.

(2) A determination of what civil defense evacuation and shelter plans and warning systems are now available or are proposed to be made available to such areas.

(3) An evaluation of the effectiveness of such existing evacuation and shelter plans and warning systems.

(4) A determination of the feasibility of establishing more effective evacuation and shelter plans and warning systems for such areas and a determination of the potential costs and methods of financing such plans and systems.

(5) A detailed analysis of the specific effects of a nuclear attack on each such area.

(6) A determination of the need for educating, and the most effective methods of educating, the public in such areas on civil defense matters.

(c) The study required by this section shall be completed, and copies shall be filed with the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives, before April 1, 1979.
